

Internship @ PwC

Focus. Express Yourself. Achieve

Kick-start your career with an exciting Internship @ PwC Greece. We are aiming to educate, train & share with final-year students our expertise around Technology. We commit to mentoring and supporting you to the best of our ability, as well as to actively helping you out towards finding your ideal role in Technology;

- Software Development
- Quality Assurance
- Business Analysis
- DevOps
- Data Engineering

What to expect

- Continuous training, coaching & mentoring, whilst learning from a wide range of top professionals
- The chance to have a view and be part of different projects of different industries
- Compensation package, flexible working program, discounted prices (e.g. stores, gyms, etc.)
- Being part of a high performing team of tech experts
- Team bonding activities

What we are looking for

- Final-year students (BSc) in Computer Science, Engineering, or relevant discipline in the University of Patras
- Strong analytical skills, problem structuring and problem solving skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

We kindly request interested students to submit their CV directly to their respective university career services.